The Star Saturday of All to Buy Your Winter Underwear.

DERBY RIEBED UNDERWEAR 25C

The Great Crows that Came to Our Last Saturday's Underwear Sale Will Bear Us Out in the Assertion that These Are Big Bargains.

There was such a big run on our derby ribbed underwear last week that we have replenished the lot with 150 suits of tan underwear of much higher price and place the entire lot at your disposal for 25c each.

Extra heavy Scotch gray shirts and drawers, good value for 60c a piece.

A lot of fleece-lined underwear that usually sells for $2.00 a suit, is broken in sizes, and for that reason goes for 60c a piece.

LAUNDERED WHITE SHIRTS, 25C. With all linen bosoms, reinforced back, all good union linen body.

GENUINE CALFSKIN GLOVES, 50C. A big lot of men's all solid calfskin gloves, lined or unlined, not a pair worth less than $1.00.

Heavy rawhide, lined gloves, the best working glove made, go for 50c.

Men's work shirts in heavy chevils and all colors.

NECKTIES, 25C. Not 25c neckties, but neckties that cost 40c that we never sold for less than 50c.

Park Commissioners' Meeting.

At the meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners yesterday afternoon the question of signing a petition for a change of grade on Thirty-second street and Woolworth avenue, at the northwest corner of Hanson park, was referred for another week.

Applications were received from John Clarke and Mr. Galbraith for the privilege to sell refreshments at the skating booths at Hanson park during the winter, and the latter was referred to the next meeting.

There was some discussion in regard to the advisability of keeping the lake at Hanson park in condition for skating during the winter months. To keep the ice in condition and provide sufficient water will cost about $1,000 for the winter, and the matter was referred to a special committee consisting of Messrs. Tukey, Kilpatrick and Reinhold to report at the next meeting.

Wanted to Burn His House.

D. N. McKenzie decided Thursday that he had a good deal to be thankful for. He got up bright and early, and to testify to his thankfulness purchased several bottles of alcohol and got gloriously drunk. In the evening he went to his home at 214 Hardy street and determined to show his family

Minor Matters in the District Court.

A verdict for the defense was returned yesterday in the case of the Commercial Bank of Burlington Junction, Mo., against Perry Bros. & Co., a South Omaha commission firm. The bank honored drafts to the amount of $900 which the commission firm refused to acknowledge.

Charles A. McKinney has commenced foreclosure proceedings against Abner Waggoner on a mortgage for $2,000; the Edinburgh Loan and investment company against J. J. Garding on a mortgage of $1,200; the Anglo-American Loan, Mortgage and Agency company against Mary Adair on a mortgage for $600; John A. Horbach against Nancy J. Brown on a mortgage of $450.

Judge Ambrose will decide the case of the O. H. Hammond company against the Chicago & Northwestern railway this morning.

The Hetzel case was given to the Jury in Judge Keyser's court yesterday afternoon.

The will of Amanda H. Skinner has been filed for probate in the county court.

The usual proportion of baking powder to flour is one teaspoonful to a quart. Owing to its superior strength, an even teaspoonful of Dr. Price's accomplishes latter results than a rounded or heaping teaspoonful of any other brand.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Thursday John Cover stole a coat from Charles McCoy. He was arrested and yesterday sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

The Commercial bank of Lamoni, Ia., offers a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the burglars who robbed the bank on the night of November 28.

Superintendent Gillespie of the Deaf and Dumb institute says that the proceeds of the ball at Myrtle hall Thanksgiving evening were not for the benefit of the institute as stated.

The friends of Superintendent Marble of the city schools will be pained to learn that the illness of his daughter which caused him to cast last week promises to be fatal. Miss Marble is in the acute stages of consumption and all hope of her recovery has been abandoned.

Henry Lanier of the tax department of Baltimore, Md., has written to Mayor Bemis for information concerning his uncle, Henry Lanier, who is supposed to have died in Omaha nearly a decade ago. Mr. Lanier is said to have been at one time the proprietor of the American house in this city.

The building inspector is doing the least business this month that the office has done in any single month during the present administration. No one seems to be doing any building more extensive than making slight repairs and it is several weeks since a permit has been issued for improvements worth more than $500.

Horace A. Itiner of 2008 Ohio street gave a very pleasant stag dinner party to a quartet of friends Thursday. All feminine services were dispensed with and Mr. Itiner prepared the viands himself. His friends all agree to his success as a chef and the repast was enthusiastically demolished by A. C. Adams, John L. Gideon, W. W. Chapman and John N. Westberg.

Turned on the Gas and Died.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—W. O. Luskomb, manager of the Chicago office of the Luscombe Water Filtering company, committed suicide today by turning on the gas in his bedroom at the Hotel Grand Central.

He was prominent in Missouri, his brother being manager of the company, which has headquarters in Caspary, Mo. Despondency is supposed to have caused the suicide.

One good thing about Dr. Price's Baking Powder is that contents of the cans are always full weight. It stands the test of the scales as well as every other.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Commencing with today's matinee and continuing for four nights, Hoyt's thoroughly entertaining comedy, "A Bunch of Keys" will be the attraction at the Fifteenth Street theater. This, the first production of Hoyt's pen, is by many critics considered his best. It is spontaneous in action and artistic in detail, and interrupted as it is by an excellent company, should meet with unequalled success.

At the matinee this afternoon Mr. Goodwin will appear as Chaney Shorter in Henry Guy Carleton's fine comedy, "A Gilded Fool." At the night performance Mr. Goodwin will present a double bill, the evening's entertainment opening with Thomas W. Robertson's immortal comedy, "David Garrick," and closing with Madison Morton's farce, "Lead Me Five Shillings." Mr. Goodwin appearing in both pieces. This will be one of the most brilliant performances that the Boyd will present to its patrons this season.

The comedians, Donnelly and Girard, and their New York company, will appear in their new comedy, "The Rainmakers," at Boyd's theater on tomorrow evening and for the three succeeding nights with a popular priced matinee on Wednesday. All the remarkable electrical and mechanical effects, together with more than a carload of special scenery used in New York, will be used.

Mr. Donnelly assumes the character of Percival Airtight, a ubiquitous hotel clerk, and Mr. Girard will ably assist him in the role of Felix Bubbles, the head porter of the establishment. The proprietor of Hotel Chick has absconded at the beginning of the play, leaving Percival Airtight in charge.

The rise of the curtain discloses a strike among the servants in full progress at the hotel, in which the versatile hotel clerk has his hands full in settling. The fun commences at the very outset, and runs fast and furious throughout the play. The great cyclone scene in the second act is a marvel of stage mechanism. The country home of the circus proprietor is seen at the time when a professional rainmaker is about to begin operations. Airtight and Bubbles, who have deserted the hotel force, appear upon the scene, steal his explosives and determine to earn his fee themselves. They are totally ignorant of the uses of the various explosives, so set them all off at once. The effect is appalling. A terrific thunder storm immediately bursts forth. The rain comes down in a perfect deluge. The wind howls and blows

With such terrific force that the houses and barns are wrecked; fences are carried away, and everything is blown off its feet.

Here the lights are turned up; the comedians are discovered under a fallen tree, whereupon they remark: "What a lot of weather we are having." The third act introduces a lot of excellent specialties, including the famous electric march, which has created the most profound sensation in New York of anything seen last season. The sale of seats will open this morning at 8 o'clock.

Eugene Tompkins' famous "Black Crook," which had such a run at the Academy of Music, is to be taken bodily to the Boyd for the last three nights of next week. The wardrobe, scenery and mechanical effects have all been renewed, and many new features have been added. The cast is a strong one, and considerable addition has been made to the large ballet. The principal dancers will be Signora Tornaghi and Staccioni as premieres, and Signor Bianciferri, better known as the Human Top, is the principal dancer. The march of the Amazons, the electric staircase, will, of course, be one of the strong features. An entirely new idea in living pictures will be introduced. There are over 200 people employed in the production.

The scepter of supremacy—swayed easily by Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

What December Has Been.

OMAHA, Nov. 25.—The chief of the weather bureau directs the publication of the following data, compiled from the record of observations for the month of December, taken at this station for a period of twenty-three years. It is believed that the facts thus set forth will prove of interest to the public, as well as the special student, showing as they do the average and extreme conditions of the more important meteorological elements and the range within which such variations may be expected to keep during any corresponding month.

Temperature: Mean or normal temperature, 28 degrees. The warmest December was that of 1888, with an average of 29 degrees. The coldest December was that of 1878, with an average of 17 degrees. The highest temperature during any December was 48 degrees, on December 23, 1888. The lowest temperature during any December was 17 degrees below zero, on December 23, 1884. Average date on which first "killing" frost occurred (in autumn), September 21. Average date on which last "killing" frost occurred (in spring), April 15.

Precipitation (rain and melted snow): Average for the month, 0.25 inch. Average number of days with .01 of an inch or more, 7. The greatest monthly precipitation was 2.14 inches in 1877. The least monthly precipitation was .08 inch in 1880. The greatest amount of precipitation recorded in any twenty-four consecutive hours was 1.96 inches on December 11, 1881. The greatest amount of snowfall recorded in twenty-four consecutive hours (record extending to winter of 1884 only) was 23.0 inches, on December 6 and 7, 1882.

Clouds and Weather: Average number of cloudless days, 10. Average number of partly cloudy days, 12. Average number of cloudy days, 9. The prevailing winds have been from the northwest. The highest velocity of the wind during any December was fifty miles, on December 4, 1888.
